Inmate's Death Investigated as Homicide at Central Utah Correctional Facility

DRAPER – An inmate's death is being investigated after his involvement in an altercation Wednesday evening at the Central Utah Correctional Facility in Gunnison.

Shortly after the altercation, William Fowers, 60, was declared dead at the prison's infirmary.

The family of Mr. Fowers has been notified. The incident is under investigation by the Utah State Bureau of Investigation.

Fowers has spent the majority of his time incarcerated since his 1986 convictions for a first-degree felony for sodomy on a child and a first-felony for aggravated kidnapping.
